

Are you at least 50 years old?
If so, you're at risk for colorectal cancer.

Colorectal cancer is the second leading cause of death from cancer in the United States. You are at risk if you are 50 or older, have a family member who has had colorectal cancer or colon polyps, or have inflammatory bowel disease.

To find out what you can do to decrease your chances of getting colorectal cancer, come to [insert location] on [insert date]. Colorectal Surgeon [insert your name], MD, will speak from [insert start and end times] to provide you with important information on preventing, detecting and treating colorectal cancer.

Attend this FREE education seminar to learn about:

- Preventing colorectal cancer
- Assessing your risk factors
- Screening options to detect colorectal cancer
- Treatments for colorectal cancer

For more information, call [insert name and contact information, including e-mail address if applicable].