We invite you to join us June 10-14, 2017 for the American Society of Colon and Rectal Surgeons Annual Meeting in Seattle, Washington. Receive up-to-date education relative to surgery of the colon and rectum with an emphasis on patient care, teaching, and research from renowned surgeons in the field. The complete program, along with registration information, will be available on the ASCRS website in January at www.fascrs.org.

ANNUAL MEETING MISSION

The main goals of the ASCRS Annual Scientific Meeting are to: (a) improve the diagnosis and treatment of patients with diseases and disorders affecting the colon and rectum; and (b) improve the quality of patient care by maintaining, developing and enhancing the knowledge, skills, professional performance, and multidisciplinary relationships necessary to provide services for patients, the public and the profession.

ACCREDITATION

The American Society of Colon and Rectal Surgeons (ASCRS) is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians. ASCRS is responsible for the content, quality and scientific integrity of the CME activity.
